PGIMS docs suspend stir

ROHTAK, DECEMBER 9

Resident doctors serving at Rohtak PGIMS today decided to put off their stir for a week and return to their duties. Representatives of the PGIMS Resident Doctors Association (RDA) took the decision to resume their duties after a meeting with Pt Bhagwat Dayal Sharma University of Health Sciences Vice-Chancellor Dr Anita Saxena and PGIMS Director Dr Geeta Gathwala.

The PGIMS Medical Superintendent, Dr Ishwar Singh, said the resident doctors have resumed their emergency duties today and OPDs would function as usual from tomorrow. — TNS

Now, dial 112 for all traffic emergencies

CHANDIGARH, DECEMBER 9

To provide prompt emergency services related to traffic safety, Haryana Police has successfully integrated Traffic Helpline Number 1073 with Emergency Response Support System (ERSS) helpline 112.

Sharing the details, DGP Haryana PK Agrawal informed that this decision has been taken on the basis of assessment of already running integrated 108 (ambulance) and 101 (fire) services in Gurugram and Faridabad districts. With this facility the Farmers start ret home from Tikri,

RAVINDER SAINI & MUKESH TANDON
TRIBUNE NEWS SERVICE

JHAJJAR/SONEPAT, DECEMBER 9

Hundreds of farmers camping at the Tikri border for the past over a year today left for their home after getting information about the Samyukt Kisan Morcha (SKM)'s decision to call off the protest. However, the SKM announced that they would go back home after celebration on December 11.

Those who returned home in the first batch belonged to distant places like Pathankot, Amritsar, Tarn Taran, Gurdaspur, Hoshiarpur and Ferozepur, while a majority of them also packed their belongings to go back early in the morning tomorrow. The farmers also danced at the main protest site to celebrate their victory when the SKM's decision was announced from the dais.

"After the Centre accepted all our demands yesterday, we were confident about going back home today, hence all our bags were packed in the morning. We loaded these on tractor-trailers and other vehicles as soon as the SKM announced to call off the agitation from the Singhu border," said Harvinder of Amritsar.

Gurjeet from Gurdaspur said they had called their other family members to Tikri of the BKU (Rajewal), confirmed that hundreds of farmers, especially hailing from distant places, left for home today. "There might have been a traffic jam issue en route to Punjab, hence these farmers preferred to return home today to prevent the possibility of any such issue. Tomorrow, farmers will not only pack their luggage and load it on the trailers and other vehicles, but also ensure
