4 killed as JCB machine falls into gorge

KULLU, JANUARY 18
Four persons were killed and three others injured as a JCB machine fell into a 200-metre-deep gorge at Saminala, near Grahon village, in Banjar subdivision of the district today. A team of the Banjar police, along with 108 ambulances, rushed to the spot and started the rescue work with the help of local villagers.

Kullu SP Gurdev Sharma said that the deceased had been identified as Pyardasi (55) of Fagudhar village, Dabe Ram (55) of Ghat village, Bhim Singh (57) of Tandi village and JCB machine operator Hom Raj, aka Goldy, of Sudrani village. The JCB machine was engaged to clear snow from the Banjar-Dalwahad road and all victims were labourers of the PWD. The reason for the accident was not yet ascertained, he stated.

The SP said that the bodies were recovered with the help of local people. It took a long time to retrieve the bodies as these were not easily approachable. He added that the bodies would be handed over to the bereaved family members after a postmortem examination. — OC
